

Our Privacy Policy

In order to assist with the handling and resolution of your claim, we collect nonpublic information about you from one or more of the following sources:

- Lawyers
- Insurance companies
- Medical and treatment providers
- Medical professionals such as lifecare planners and case managers
- Accountants and economists
- Federal and state governmental entities
- Others who may have been involved in your claim

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to anyone, except as required or permitted by law and only as necessary for the proper disposition of your claim.

We restrict access to your personal information to employees and management of our firm, defense and plaintiff counsel, and other individuals who may require information in order to fulfill their responsibilities associated with your claim. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your personal, nonpublic information.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at (248) 865-3900.